

Save the date for the 2nd annual CFVDVM Horses Helping Humans Event

To support

Lonesome Dove Equestrian Center

to aid in the support of another wonderful cause...

Lonesome Dove is a 501 (3)(c) non-profit organization to provide horseback riding activities at no charge for veterans for physical and emotional support as well as for enjoyment. They have just reached 2000 riders this month and we hope to support their efforts for 200 more!

Please feel free to check out this wonderful organization at <http://ldequestrian.com/>

June 25th, 2016 - beginning at 10 am

At: 16530 Egglestetton Road, Amelia VA

Enjoy a silent auction, catered BBQ lunch, carriage tours of historic Egglestetton plantation and local speakers to include:

Mel Wilson – Trailer loading pitfalls and how to overcome them

Doug Minton – Reining Demonstration and tackling common training issues

Luanne Johnson – Common Issues in the Jumper Ring

Dr. Carmen – Suggest a veterinary topic you are interested in!

Hang around after the talks for good horsie comradery with local band, the Honky Tonkers.

Start saving your Southern States and Nutrena Proof of Purchase labels now and feel free to contact Dr. Carmen at carmen@cfvdm.com or 804-366-2869 with silent auction donations and suggestions for the event